COTTON MILL OPERATIVES.

The Charge That the Factory Breeds Inmorality Among Women in Not True-The Factory Has a Civilizing Influence, Lifting Operatives

ADVANTAGES OF FACTORIES. "We hear a most deal about the sweating system, and the popular in that the awarding system is the popular in that the awarding system is the popular in the conditions. I act is, that it is a remaint of the cold in the strial system. It is the odd hand system in the establishment of the factory. Just sat as the sweathons are developed in the factory and throught under the laws their relate to factory regulation, furt so rapidly is the sweating system being eliminated. The only cure is to make of the sweat shop the factory. The social life of sweaters can be improved only by lifting them to the grade of factory operatives.

FACTORY WOMEN AS PURE AS THE WOMEN

OF FIFTH AVENUE. "We sometime hear of the immorality of the factory operatives. I have no doubt that immorality exists among factory operatives, the same as it exists in Fifth Avenue, and everywhere else on earth where men and women are found, but I do not believe that it women are found, but I do not believe that it exists in any greater proportion in the factory than in any other walk of life. On the other hand, I believe that Immoral lives are less frequent among the factory population than among any other class in the community, and investigations, and extensive ones at that, is this country and abroad teach the truth of this assertion. The charge that the factory breeds immorality among women is not true, and can not be sustained by any facts that have ever been collected."

THE UPWARD TENDENCY.

THE UPWARD TENDENCY.

Colonel Wright claims that the factory in this country has ever been a civilizing in fluence among the operatives, "reaching down to the lower strata of society and lifting them up to a higher standard." While it may be true that the factory operatives of to day do not compare, in physique and intelligence, with the New England workers of fifty years sgo, the change is largely due to the character of imfiligration. When the American and English girls were forced out of the factories, they were crowded not downward, but into higher callings, for "they became the wives of foremen and superintendents, teachers in the common schools, clerks in stores and counting-rooms, and lost nothwhatever by their life and services in the factory." The Irish girls who took their places were in turn displaced by French Canadians, Swedes, Greeks. etc., and each nationality, declares Colonel Wright, was benefited by its experience within the factory walls. He adds:

DR. WILSON'S SERMON.

Dr. Wilson chose as his subject on last Sunday morning the text: "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart," Palm you what the Speed Drug Co., did for him, you may be sorry you did not look them up for books, slates, crayon, glass or anything in the drug line.

Pretty jardinlers cheep at Morse's for the balance of the season.

Columbia Record.

It has been announced that Senator Hay of Kershaw, will be a candidate for the Judge Gary the incumbent. This is the only opposition so far that developed against the same subject has been chosen, each three same subject has been chosen, each three form a different point of view. The peril of putting off the day of acceptance was first dwelt upon. Next, the Holy Ghost works according to his own appointment, and we must follow the commands. He has given us to study the Word and attend to its preaching if we would be saved. On this occasion the point mentioned was: That the Holy Ghost is consistent with his own requirements. He requires us to turn from our sin and not to continue in sin when we have the power to free ourselves from it, if we only would.

2nd. Go to the word. The command, "Search the Scriptures" is an urgent one, but one eften neglected for the latest book of fiction.

3rd. Prayer is one of the requirements of the Spirit, and no blessing need be expected without it. We must sak for the Spirit to descend upon us that we may be converted. Many people seem to have no taith in prayer, but the Bible itself tells us that the "Effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Dr. Wilson closed with an earnest appeal that the response to the Spirit's call be no longer delayed. "Today is the accepted time."
